Second Season Winner of

“The Apprentice”

&

Recent Appointee to the

President’s Council on

Service and Civic Participation

VCRI Picks a Winner for You!

The Volunteer Center of Rhode Island is proud to bring this dynamic and powerful speaker to Providence. In his only RI appearance, Kelly Perdew, member of the President’s Council on Service and Civic Participation and former protégé of Donald Trump, will speak to Rhode Island leaders, offering insight into blending corporate goals with community values and explaining how volunteering can further individual career goals.

Kelly Perdew is a proven entrepreneur, strategic thinker and author. A leader in all ventures he undertakes, Perdew is committed to improving his community through volunteering, as evidenced by his involvement in organizations like Big Brothers Big Sisters, the National Guard Youth Challenge and the USO.

Don't miss this one time opportunity to learn how to put your passions to work and make a difference while making money at the same time.
